

Advance Care Planning is for everyone.

think about it. talk about it. share it.

A three-workshop series presented at The First Congregational Church of Camden this winter, addressing end-of-life issues with a primary focus on advance care planning.

Thursday evenings, 6:30 to 8:00 pm, in the First Congregational Church Pilgrim Room 55 Elm Street, Camden. Enter through the door leading in from the church parking lot.

January 18 - Introduction to End-of-Life Issues

February 8 - Overview of Advance Care Planning

February 15 - Create Your Personal, Individualized Advance Directive

Attending all three sessions is recommended.

All workshops will be presented and facilitated by David and Karen Giansiracusa. Attendance is free of charge and open to all. Registration is requested but not required; call Becky in the church office at 207-236-4821 or email her at churchoffice@camdenucc.org
